RADFORD

BUILDING ACTIVITY.

The Sunshine Has an Exhilarating Effect Upon Business.

For the first time within two weeks "Old Sol" spread his glorious rays over our hustling little city, and in consequenco renewed activity was noticeable on every hand. Work on the many buildings under construction was renewed, and the ring of saw and hammer were plainly heard throughout the city.

The stone foundation for St. Alban's school is being pushed rapidly to completion and the brick is being piaced upon the ground. Work on the hospital has also been renewed. This will be one of the linest buildings and the most complete hospitals in the State

Harris' two-story building is about completed, and the brick build-ing of the Southwest Virginia Impreve-ment Company is receiving its finishing about completed, and the brick building of the Southwest Virginia Imprevement Company is receiving its finishing touches. Near this is a two-story building, erected by one of Roanoke's citizens, nearing completion.

Peters Bros', building and the twenty-two residences are being pushed as rapidly as possible. As a finishing touch J. K. Dimmick has completed the plans and is preparing for the construction of a S10,000 residence.

This is a synopsis of the improvements under way in the West ward, not including the West Radford Land and Improvement Company property, upon which a large number of residences are being built. This same activity is noticeable in the East ward.

The excitement over the killing of W. D. Brown by young Foster at New river Thursday night, while not so manifest, is still intense, and threats of lynching are freely expressed.

Maj J. Hoge Tyler and several other gentlemen met at the office of the Rad-ford Development Company this aftern on for the purpose of formulating a plan for building a Prosbyterian chapel in the East ward. The Development Company is to donate the lot. The result of the conference could not be
